Jackie: I'm trying to make Richard get another job.

Richard: Oh, really ? Actually I quite like the one I've got, thank you.

Jackie: Yes, Richard, but I think you should apply for the best job in the world.

Richard: Ooh, that sounds interesting. What is the best job in the world?

Jackie: Well, first of all, it's in Australia, I know you like Australia...

Richard: Yes, I do very much so.

Jackie: It's in Queensland. Does that mean anything to you?

Richard: Yes, it's in the North ...East of Australia, it's quite hot, tropical, lots of beaches and the Great Barrier Reef.

Jackie: Exactly, exactly, so this job is for Tourism Queensland.

Richard: Okay.

Jackie: Basically what they want is ... er, they want an island caretaker, they want someone to live on Hamilton Island which is one of the islands of the Great Barrier Reef.

Richard: Wow, that sounds like a good job to me.

Jackie: And, er... I mean, not only is it on the Great Barrier Reef, which is fantastic but actually there's not very much that you have to do.

Richard: Even better!

Jackie: Okay, well, there are basically three things that you'll have to do, right? One is feed the fish...

Richard: I'm sure I can do that!

Jackie: Clean the pool...

Richard: They' ve got a swimming-pool as well?

Jackie: Yes.

Richard: It's not just on the ocean?

Jackie: No.

Richard: Okay.

Jackie: and collect the mail.

Richard: For who?

Jackie: Em, for everybody living on the island.

Richard: Oh, there are people living on the island then!

Jackie: They have officers there.

Richard: Oh that's ok. [...] So what exactly... so that's my job!

Jackie: Yes Okay, I think basically what they want to do is to promote the island for some reasons I don't know because that's beautiful already, but they obviously want to make it a little bit more famous so they want someone to do those things but really to write a weekly blog, take photographs and do some videoing. You could do all of those things!

Richard: I'm sure most people could!

Jackie: Yes, and just to... just to talk about your life on the island.

Richard: Fantastic, I love being paid for doing next to nothing.

Jackie: Yes and you know, even the salary is quite good, it's Australian dollars, it's 150 000 Aus $... for 6 months.

Richard: For 6 months? 150 000 Aus$, that's like 75 000 £, fifty, that's over 100000$ for 6 months

Jackie: And they say there 's time to go diving, snorkelling, walking, sailing

Richard: So what are they going to do with all the millions of applicants?

Jackie: Well, There is 11 more days to apply for the job and to apply for the job, all you have to do is to send in a 60 second- video to say why you are the perfect person for the job.

Richard: Right Jackie. Let's get our video cameras

Jackie: It'd be good, wouldn't it?

Richard: You're not joking. Let's go!
